

SF Redevelopment Agency / MOH Alamo Square Apartments San Francisco, CA

Interior noise levels & sound isolation

Owner
San Francisco
Redevelopment Agency

The project delivered more than 100 much-needed housing units in San Francisco's Western Addition neighborhood. The project was spread across five buildings, with a 110-space parking garage. This project was executed on behalf of the San Francisco Redevelopment Agency.

Location
Western Addition,
San Francisco

The acoustical design scope included:

Completion
2000

- Site noise study to support approvals
- Exterior façade noise design for Title 24
- Interior sound isolation design for Title 24
- Construction administration

Total Units
41 low-income
62 market-rate

Reference: Pamela Collier, Vice President (Levy Design Partners, Project Architect), 415-777-0561

Total Building Area
125,000 gsf

Construction Cost
$10.8M

Architect, Contractor
Levy Design Partners
Nibbi Brothers GC

